

Sherman M4A1

Willy De Cock

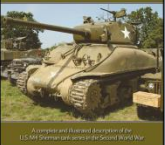

Sherman M4A1

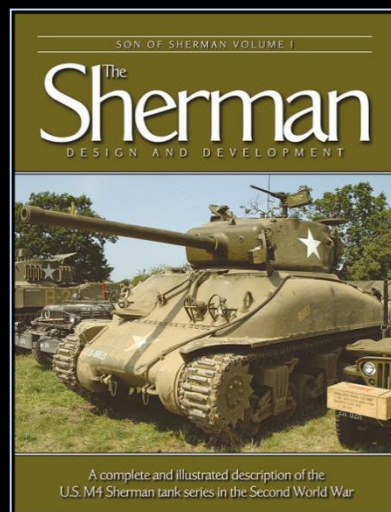

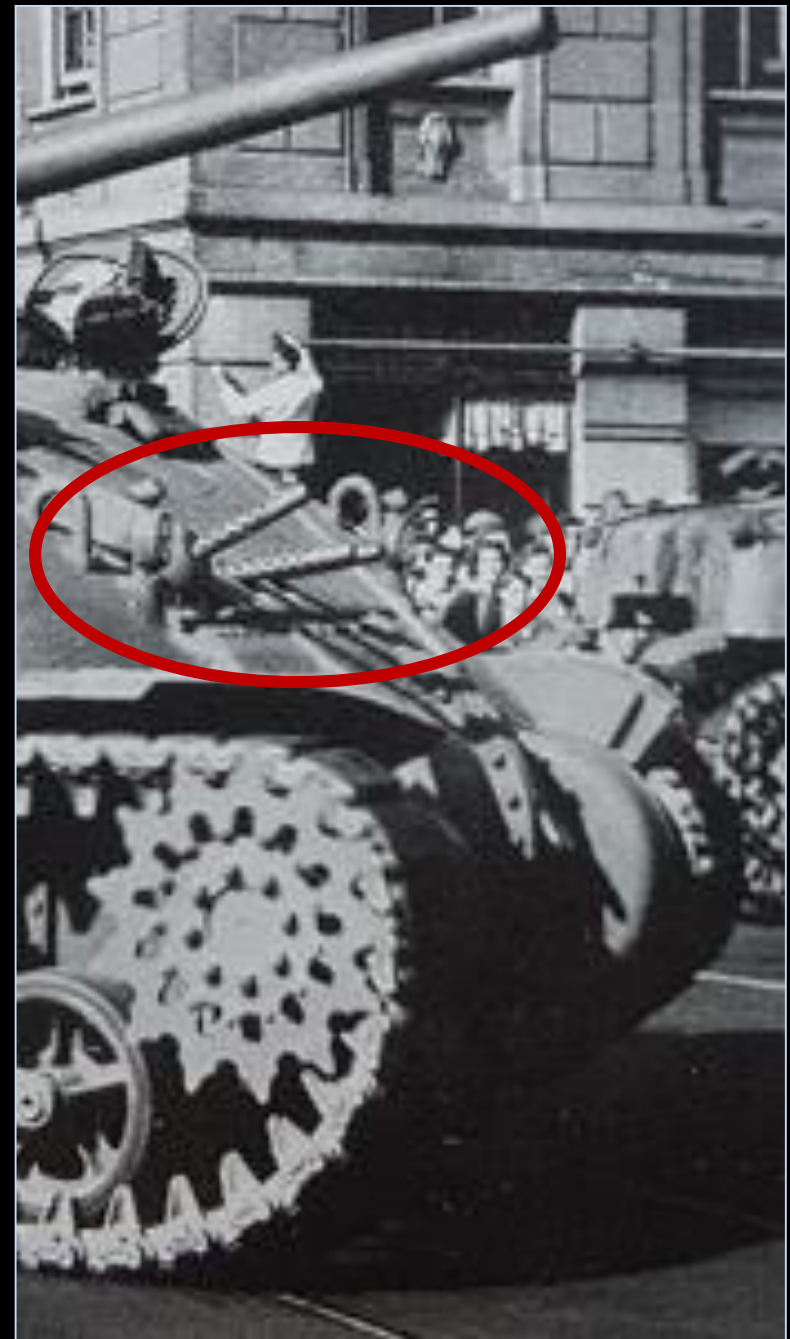

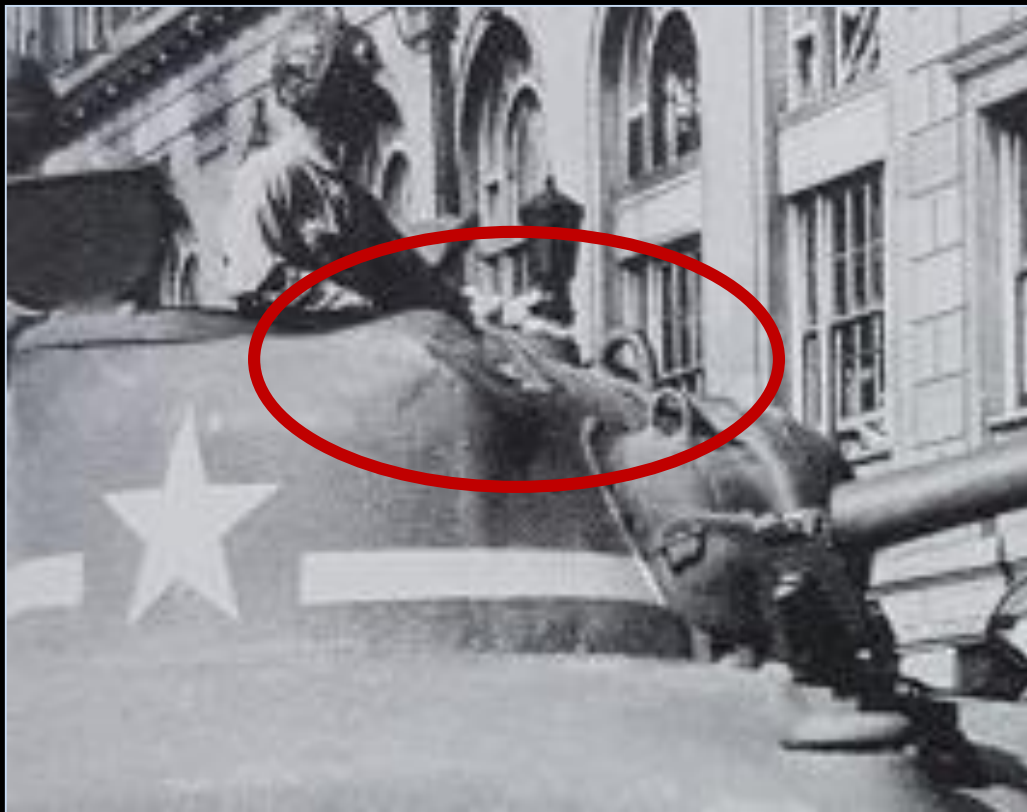

Brand new direct vision M4A1s parade through the streets of Louisville, Kentucky. The crews were training at the time at nearby Ft. Knox. These machines were probably accepted in March of 1942 and the tank on the left may have been the first ever accepted at PSC. Both have riveted lower hulls and turrets mounting the site rotor. (NARA)

Bron :

Sherman

Accompany and featured description of the U.S. Army's Sherman tank during World War II

Bron :

